Mr. Lawrence R. Houston
2430 E St. N.W.
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Houston,

Your kind letter of Oct. 14-th, was answered by me on Oct. 17-th, which explains the [REDACTED] case in length.

STATINTL

It was sufficiently emphasized that this unprecedented behaviour placed us in a very unpleasant situation by an employee of the CIA, who was granted credit chiefly on account of her employment by your agency, which should remain "sans reproche<sup>1</sup>" and unknown.

STATINTL

Kindly, use your power to remedy the [REDACTED] effort to obtain a very valuable property by reneging on obligations.

Your prompt intervention will be appreciated.

I am, sincerely,

de Bobula
